

RENTAL • SALES • SERVICE

SERVICE TECHNICIAN / SHOP MECHANIC

Full-Time Job

K&K Supply is a family owned & operated tool and equipment rental company located in Fenton, Missouri. Seeking to hire a Full Time- Service Technician / Shop Mechanic

The primary responsibility of the service technician / shop mechanic is to diagnose construction equipment repair needs and perform designated repairs on customer or company owned machines as directed.

Duties Include the Following:

- Perform mechanical skills including but not limited to, mechanical, electrical, pneumatic and hydraulic troubleshooting and repair of packaging and production machines.
- Preventative maintenance and general machine upkeep
- Following a consistent and regular schedule to perform various types of maintenance on construction equipment and various pieces of machinery.
- Preparing all rental equipment for customer availability
- Loading or unloading equipment or components from customer owned or common carrier vehicles
- Occasional use of basic welding equipment
- Performing safety inspections on equipment
- Disassemble and assemble machine components to manufacturers specifications though the use of hand tools and pneumatic tools
- Meet all company and equipment-specific safety requirements
- Ability to work independently and be flexible regarding work assignments
- Complying with OSHA safety and health rules

Pay Based on Experience with Full Benefits Including Paid Vacation

Requirements:

- 2 Years' Experience
- Must have experience working in a busy shop
- Must be able to provide your own tools
- Follows all safety rules and regulations
- Proficient with a Computer
- Able to work overtime and weekends.
- Must be able to pass pre-employment drug & alcohol screening.

To be qualified all applicants should have basic knowledge of construction equipment, mechanic aptitude, knowledge of tools applicable to position, and a strong desire to learn.